

Millance LTD Risk Warning

Overview:

Trading Forex and leveraged financial instruments carries a high level of risk and may result in substantial financial losses. Investors should thoroughly assess their financial condition, trading experience, and risk tolerance before participating in trading activities.

Key points:

Trading leveraged products can lead to losses that exceed your initial deposits.

- Only use funds you are prepared to lose for trading.
- Market volatility, leverage, and execution risks can result in unexpected losses.
- Millance LTD does not guarantee profits, and past performance is not indicative of future results.
- If you are uncertain about the risks, seek independent financial advice.
